

On the behave of Afghan Women Welfare

English Language Program

As Afghan youths, with due honor here with, we'd like to wish all the girls, all women of the world an auspicious prosperous and contented moments days, months and years.

Secondly we are really thankful to be given the opportunity to express our internal feelings and thoughts regarding the women precious status and hope them a successful, bright destiny.

To the best of our belief a woman can own full rights to live independently, educated and to be diligent responsible for the society.

As Afghan girls we feel ourselves suitable, responsible and as well as efficient characters of our both families and country, who struggle the suffering moments, attempt to approach to prosperities in order to pave the way for the other country women.

The more it is thought the less it is to provide a woman the rights that she naturally deserves, the nature of our thoughts is that a woman should be given her rightful life to live.

Women do have their own energy work, minds and abilities. They can even challenge the ups and downs of life. Then why they don't deserve to

S

Shakil
S.R.

W

S

Makayine

S

Makayine

Subhan

Makayine

Shakil

Makayine

Shakil

Makayine

S

Makayine

S

Subsist independently and passes happy and cozy life. In particular, we do have a strong defense against any appositions regarding the rights and status of each girl, woman and youth through out the world and we obviously show them that woman has the honored status and significant role through the community.

In conclusion we are gleefully showing a special gratitude to the Canadian W4W in Afghanistan and thanking them for their great support through our country women.

Moderately,

By:

Wazhma

Kulsoom

Muhajera

Khalil

Raheesa

Frozan

Handwritten signatures and names in blue ink on the right margin, including names like 'Majid', 'Zahid', 'Amir', 'Basim', and 'Faisal'.

Handwritten signatures and names in blue ink on the left margin, including names like 'Sadia', 'Khalid', and 'Faisal'.